Although sports and studies make up most of the school year, church services provide the outlet for spiritual prayer and thought. Each class participates in church services that continue to enrich us with the love of Christ throughout the year. The church services are highlighted by Homecoming, Christmas and graduation masses. These gather the whole student body together to give thanks and praise to God

This year's one act competition, held at Lakeshore High School, prevailed in giving the audience an excellent example of our ability in dramatics competition. Directed by Mrs. Howard, the cast and crew of Triffles were confident in their actions and precise in their execution. Supported by the excellent performances of Julie Bauman, Laura Orlando, Bob Cartwright, Steve Stoffle, and Jeff Strakely, the true caliber of Laker performers was shown. The performance also being backed by the excellent stage crew led by Bob Ludlam and advised by Mr. Glynn. This performance certainly got L.M.C. dramatics off on the right foot

varsity cheerleaders

Before the 1979 football season got underway, the Varsity cheerleaders were already hard at work. They attended the U.S.C.A. Summer Camp at U of M. During this time, they were awarded first place for their skit and fifth place for their dance routine.

Under the instruction of their advisors, Miss Malone and Miss Flory, the young ladies hosted the annual Christmas dance, "De Bonne Heure." The unity and spirit that the girls shared in will continue at L.M.C. in the years to come.

JV b a s k e t b a l l

Co-Captains Anne Reitz and Myriam VanSreenlandr along with leading scorer Kris Pantelaria

piloted the girls JV team to a very fine 12-8 record. Coach Beckman's girls improved throughout the season and they will be an exceliant additon to next years varsity.

my sister puts it

This year's play, My Sister Eileen, once again created by Marguerite H. Ward and written by William Gayn, was a hilarious comedy about two naive girls who left home for New York seeking fame and fortune.

The play was performed on November 29 and December 1, 2, and 3 at the High School auditorium. This year's production was the best yet, with a cast of 12 and a very entertaining and funny plot.

The 1980 Intramural Basketball program provided the student body with a chance to participate in Saturday morning athletics at its best. Six teams were formed and the season was underway. The race for first throughout the season was very close with E.S. Again and the Loop pacing the way

As fate would have it, these same two teams met in the championship game. The game was not very close as E.S. Again pulled away from the beginning and held on until the end. The final rally was E.S. 48, the Loop 27. Brian Conybeare hooped 17, and Pere Henderson netted 13 for the 1980 champions

All in all, an optimistic outlook is seen for the team as many seasoned players will return to the court once again.

The JV Volleyball team proved to be a very successful unit as they posted an overall record of 13-3. This was good enough for 2nd place in the Red Arrow Conference. Co-captains for the little spikers were Sue Crowley and Mary Herzog.

quiz bowl

guidance of Mr. William Glynn fell short of their goal to finish the season undefeated. Nevertheless, the team enjoyed meeting students from the various schools, and the vigorous competition that took place. The team did come away with something however, $20 for each of their losses for a total of $40 to go into the school fund. This year's Quiz Bowl contestants consisted of Claudia Learned, Nancy Gould, Laura Oriando, David Peterson, Kurt Wolk, and Brian Conybeare.

forensics

Forensics opened up exceptionally well, with a good start for the next years. Many students participated in this event. Multiple Reading included Lee Anne Smith, John Houseal, Richard Czuba, Bruce Levin, Lisa LaVailey, James McCauley, Sue Crowley, Paul Holbart. Radio included Greg Roor and Bruce Hansen. In Duos Brenda Orr, Tom Foresteri, Karen Van Steenandt and Jennifer Fisher. Steve Stoffie took part in the Dramatic Reading and won second place in District and went on to regionals.

Although L.M.C. students did not win regionals, they set up a firm base for future forensics.

The honors for L.M.C. didn't end at Districts as Beth Sharai, Denise D'Agostino, Kim Roor and Chris Pantellera were named to the All-Conference team. Sharai was also named to the Honorable Mention All-State team

The 1980 track team was coached by Mr. John Edwards and Mr. Dennis Miller. The leadership and guidance of these two coaches led the team to a 4-3 Conference record. With a few breaks this team had a chance to win the Conference. The team struggled through injuries and disappointments, but overall the team is young and will be an opposing force in the future. ## senior dance

The D.A.N.K. social hall was the setting for this year's Junior-Senior Dinner Dance. The food, catered by Morrorano's, was a true delicacy. The band "Perfect Five" provided the entertainment. It will surely be a dance long remembered by all.

On Friday May 30, 1980, the 1980 graduating class conducted their last liturgical service. The Mass was well attended by the entire student body and all members of the faculty

mass

Immediately following the Senior Mass, on May 30, 1980, the Seniors were treated to a wonderful breakfast, that was prepared by the Freshmen class, in the Rose Center

On May 1 the graduating class of 1980 proudly received their diplomas in the audience of a packed house at St. Joseph High School. Their theme "Arise, Go Forth, and Conquer" exemplifies the attitude of the seniors as they set out in their future endeavors.
